THE TELEPHONE

Hi everyone. We are Samantha and Santiago and we are going to tell a summary of a sinister story if you want to hear some paranormal situations.

A young actress begins a romance with Allan, a married man. He is married to Katherine, but after she discovers the situation, their marriage comes to a calm end. The actress and Allan get married and move to the countryside, to the Scottish Highlands

Some time later, Allan begins receiving mysterious phone calls that seem to come from the old London apartment he once shared with Katherine. Although she had died of a heart failure, the phone calls continued, and Allan started to believe that it was her who was using the phone to communicate with him from the death.

The narrator feels a mixture of fear and guilt, suspecting that these calls are manifestations of Allan's remorse and the continuous connection between past and present. Toward the end, it is suggested that the voices on the phone were tied to Katherine's soul and represented not only a ghostly presence, but also an emotional weight that Allan must confront and redeem.

This story looks like it is real ...but it isn't! Did you believe it? This is a story written by Mary Treadgold, and it is called: "The Telephone"

LEMON CAKE

INGREDIENTS

- 1 lemon yogurt
- 3 medium eggs
- 3 yogurt measures of flour
- 2 yogurt measures of sugar
- 1 yogurt measure of olive oil
- 1 packet of yeast
- Butter (for the mold)

STEPS

1.- Start by mixing the eggs with the sugar using a whisk or a food processor.

2.- Add the yogurt and oil. Continue mixing.

3.- Now it's time to add the flour and baking powder. Sift the flour to prevent lumps from forming. Mix evenly and let it rest for about 10 minutes to allow the batter to set while you preheat the oven and prepare the pan.

4.- Grease a baking pan with butter to prevent it from sticking.

5.- Pour the batter into the pan and bake at 180°C for about 45 minutes with heat from both sides.

6.- Check that the cake is ready when you insert a toothpick and it comes out clean. If you see that it's browning too much, cover it with aluminum foil and it's ready.

IKER PALACIOS 5ºB

I wrote this recipe because it was the first recipe I made as a child.

Pentatonix

Paz Hernández Villena

This is an a cappella music group that was formed in Arlington, Texas, USA

The founding members were Scott Hoying, Mitch Grassi and Kristin Maldonado.

Their main music style is pop, but they incorporate R&B and dubstep also

I like them because they are very charismatic and they often establish a special connection with the fans

Famous songs

Some famous songs of Pentatonix are:
Halleluyah
Can't Help Falling in Love
The Sound of Silence
Bohemian Rhapsody
Mary, Did you Know?

My personal favourite songs

Some of my personal favorite songs are:
Halleluyah
Break my heart
Finnesse
NaNaNa

Scan the codes to listen to some songs

Can you hearing any instruments?
Nope, it's their voices!

American football

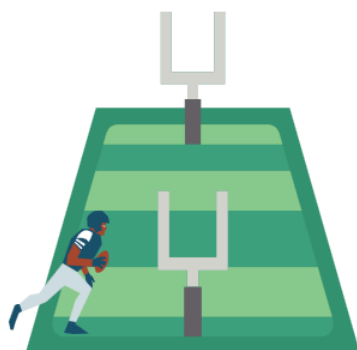

You have:

helmet
shoulder, thigh and knee pads mouth guard
jockstrap
gloves and hand warmers
football boot
jerseys and pants

The field has a length of 109.7m × 48.8m (360ft × 160ft)

CURIOSITIES:

The last Spaniard to make the jump to the NFL was José Joaquín Arcega-Whiteside. The 27-year-old player was selected in the second round of the 2019 draft.

The young American football player Xavier Worthy, only 20 years old, broke not only an NFL record, but also that of world and Olympic track and field champion Usain Bolt. The wide receiver ran 40 yards (36.5 meters) in just 4.21 seconds.

It is not just a game played with your feet. It is about throwing and carrying the ball around the field.

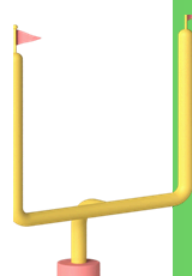

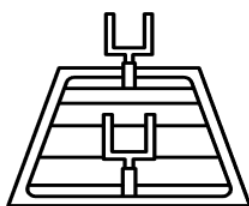

The balls are like a pointed egg for better grip when throwing.

The attacking team tries to get the ball, either through some runs or through some passes, towards the end zone and thus score points.

American football is played by two opposing teams, which are made up of eleven attacking players on one team and eleven defensive players on the other team.

Grunge culture

By Eva Aungier Pinheiro

The word grunge in music refers to a subculture of music that became really popular in the 1980s and mid-1990s. The word was used to describe alternative rock bands like Nirvana (the most popular one) and others like Pearl Jam, Alice in Chains...

Nirvana is a great example of grunge culture and its beliefs. The band was formed in 1987, and the main singer and leader, Kurt Cobain, released their first official song, "Love Buzz." However, the band didn't gain much traction until the release of their song "Smells Like Teen Spirit."

Grunge culture's main beliefs are based on anti-consumerism, anti-corporate greed, and support for women and marginalized communities. Instead of accepting consumerist culture, they embrace wearing old clothes, DIY-ing their outfits, and thrifting.

Here's some links to Nirvana's most popular songs!
